From 1 January 2022, a growing number of companies are subject to the Non-Financial Reporting Directive (NFRD). Gesvalt advises its clients on the preparation of the Non-Financial Reporting (NFR) Statement.

Advice on European Taxonomy

Gesvalt advises its clients on compliance with the disclosure obligations established by the European Taxonomy Regulation on the sustainability of the activities they carry out.

Sustainable is an economic activity that contributes substantially to the achievement of one or more of the six environmental goals established, without significant detriment to the rest of these goals.

Preparation of Green Financing Framework

In line with our objective of providing the company with global ESG solutions, Gesvalt advises on the development of the Green Financing Framework, which allows our clients to align their financing strategy with their sustainability strategy and their commitment to the decarbonisation of the economy.

Advice on GRESB Certification

- Since 2009, GRESB has been the ESG standard for real estate investors, developers and asset managers worldwide with more than 1,500 properties analysed.
- Gesvalt provides comprehensive support throughout the entire process: pre-valuation, submission of proposals and support in the implementation of recommendations.

Advice SFDR Regulation

The European SFDR regulation came into force in November 2021. This regulation aims to ensure that advisors and financial market participants (asset managers, investment companies and credit institutions), as well as large asset owners, pension funds and insurance companies, classify their financial investment products in accordance with established sustainability criteria.

The SFDR regulation aims to communicate not only sustainable investment products, but also information about the companies' strategic business, policy, objectives and methodology by including specific sustainability information on their websites.
